PATRICIA PRESLEY COURT CLERK
by V. Rodriguez
Deputy

Dear Honorable Judge Elliott:

I am writing to you in hopes that you would please hear my side of the story and to also consider modifying my sentence. I am currently serving a thirty-year sentence for Permitting Child Abuse. I need to apologize to you for my actions and for my attitude.

I have had time to sit back and understand that it's better to tell the truth than to tell a lie. Lying led me to prison. I do take full responsibility that I should have paid more attention to my children and when I did see something happen, I should have separated my children and myself from the abuser.

Due to me taking the Faith and Character Program I realized that I have to be accountable for my own actions. I also learned forty-nine character traits, three of them really hit home with me. The first is truthfulness, which is building trust by correctly representing the facts. The second one is punctuality, which is respecting others by doing the right things at the right time. The third one is alertness, which is being aware of what is happening around me so that I can have the right response. I had to write a victims apology letter and I sent it to my children.

My goals and aspirations are to get my G.E.D., and get back home to my children and further my education, and to hopefully receive my Cosmetology license so that I can have my own beauty shop.

Thank you for your time and consideration concerning this matter I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Tondalo Hall #542749
