2019-2020: EDITORIAL INTERNSHIP

NonDoc.com is looking to hire a Gaylord College student for a Fall 2019 through Spring 2020 internship. The paid internship position would focus on reporting news stories, managing web content and creating social media messages for various purposes.

Applicants must submit a résumé, cover letter and two samples of work to editorial@nondoc.com by Tuesday, Sept. 3, 2019.

The internship will run from the middle of September through the end of May, with end-date flexibility based upon student needs.

Launched in 2015, NonDoc.com is an award-winning new media and journalism website based in Oklahoma City.

Edited by OU Gaylord College and OU Daily alumni, the site serves as a responsible public forum for news and commentary. NonDoc interns receive extensive experience in the world of online media.

Qualified applicants will learn skills related to writing, editing, social-media distribution of journalism content, marketing a small business, operating WordPress, operating CoSchedule and more.

Sincerely,

William W. Savage III, editor in chief / co-owner
