Case No. CF-2023-62

AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned upon oath deposes and states as follows: to-wit:

- (1) Your affiant is a Special Agent with the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI). Your affiant became a certified peace officer in the State of Oklahoma in 2005. Your Affiant has participated in specialized training concerning the investigation of illegal drug offenses, homicides, sex crimes, and frauds. Your affiant is an advanced certified Police Officer in the State of Oklahoma being so certified by the Oklahoma Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training; Your affiant has a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice. Your affiant has conducted and participated in numerous criminal investigations, these investigations have resulted in the arrest and conviction of individuals involved in the substantive and conspiratorial criminal offenses of murder, sex crimes, fraud, and other serious felony offenses.
- (2) Your affiant has investigated this case, read certain official documents and reports, received statements from witnesses, and from these statements, documents, and/or reports. The investigation revealed the following information:
- (3) On February 8, 2022, the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation received a request for investigative assistance from Sergeant JUSTIN TRUMBLEY of the Kingfisher Police Department. TRUMBLEY requested assistance with an assault of Kingfisher High School Football players. The Kingfisher Police Department received notification of the assaults after a lawsuit was filed against Kingfisher Public Schools.
 - (A) On February 17, 2023, Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation Special Agent DEREK WHITE interviewed a former Kingfisher High School football player known only as [REDACTED] was a freshman when a student only known as [REDACTED] was a senior. During the 2015-2016 football season, [REDACTED] witnessed Kingfisher Assistant Football Coach MICAH NALL, grab [REDACTED] by his facemask and punch [REDACTED] in the face three to four times.

(B) During the course of the investigation, Agents learned of "The Ring". The Ring was an area within the locker room where wrestling and boxing matches between football players would take place.

- a. OSBI Agents interviewed six former Kingfisher High School Football players who reported NALL, an adult, wrestled with a student football player, known only as [REDACTED]. This allegedly happened when [REDACTED] was a freshman, under the age of eighteen, at Kingfisher High School.
- b. NALL completed a deposition on July 20, 2023. NALL admitted he wrestled [REDACTED] in the Kingfisher locker room. NALL admitted it was a "very, very, poor decision..." on his part. NALL admitted he told the other students to put their phones away because he did not want anyone videotaping the incident with [REDACTED].
- c. NALL admitted during his deposition he knew about, "The Ring". NALL, along with all of the other coaches had knowledge of the ring because they would hear the football players call each other out on the football practice field. NALL admitted that he had watched the minors participate in "The Ring" on more than one occasion. NALL admitted he had the opportunity to stop "The Ring" but never did anything to stop the wrestling and boxing matches.

(C) Agents were told NALL was verbally abusing minors during the course of his tenure at Kingfisher Public Schools. NALL was a teacher and coach at Kingfisher from 2013 through 2020.

- a. [REDACTED] was a student and football player at Kingfisher High School and graduated in 2019. [REDACTED] was on an Individualized Education Program, also known as an IEP. [REDACTED] was on the IEP for [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which made it hard to concentrate and retain information. NALL was [REDACTED]'s remedial English teacher.
- b. During NALL'S deposition, he admitted he knew [REDACTED] was on an IEP. NALL admitted [REDACTED] had approached NALL his freshman year and requested NALL to put plays on the cards so he could go home and study them in order to get better. This was something that was done for [REDACTED] in Middle School football.
- c. NALL denied [REDACTED]'s request to put the plays on cards for [REDACTED] to study at home. NALL told [REDACTED] that this was something they did not do. When [REDACTED] would miss an assignment on the football field or mess up, NALL would get in his face and call him a "Fat worthless piece of shit". During NALL'S deposition, he admitted by stating, "I probably said some hurtful things to [REDACTED] that I deeply regret saying."
- d. [REDACTED] has since reported he has flashbacks of NALL calling him a "Fat worthless piece of shit" when he messes up at work. NALL was asked during his deposition, "You understand, you appreciate now the harm that that sort of verbal abuse has on young children. Right?" NALL stated, "Yes sir."

- e. NALL admitted it was possible that he called players, "faggot" while at Kingfisher Public Schools, during football practice.

(D) On July 20, 2023, NALL completed a deposition as part of an ongoing federal lawsuit. The deposition was provided to your affiant as part of an ongoing criminal investigation. During the course of this deposition, NALL made several contradictory statements under oath regarding events that had already been proven during the course of a previous criminal investigation in 2020.

- a. On November 30, 2020, One Count of Obstructing an Officer was filed in Kingfisher County, Oklahoma Against NALL. During the course of the investigation, Kingfisher Police Officer CHARLES TROUT reviewed video footage of a juvenile male only identified as [REDACTED] being struck and "speared" while on the ground. NALL ultimately pleaded guilty to the charge of lying to an officer and obstructing his investigation.
- b. During the deposition NALL was questioned about lying to TROUT about the allegations of the case. NALL was asked, "You do not agree that you have lied at all about the allegations in that case, in this case. Is that your testimony?" NALL replied, "About the bull in the ring incident?" Then he goes on to state, "Okay, I do not, I do not believe that I have lied about that incident. Later in the deposition, NALL was asked if he lied to the victim's family and to the police, which he pleaded guilty to doing. NALL changed his reply and admitted he lied to the police and to the victim's family.

(4) MICAH NALL, being a school employee and assistant football coach for the Kingfisher Public Schools, was in charge of the health and welfare of each student under his care. NALL was responsible for the health, safety, and welfare of each football player who was participating in extracurricular activities while attending Kingfisher Public Schools. NALL allowed students to be unsupervised and participate in fights where injuries occurred. NALL admitted to participating in one of these fights with a student who was a minor. NALL participated in this fight with other students around. NALL admitted knowledge of these fights and continued to allow them to go on.

(5) MICAH RYAN NALL is a white male, DOB: [REDACTED]

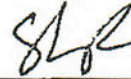

(6) The offense(s) occurred in the City of Kingfisher, County of Kingfisher, State of Oklahoma.

WHEREFORE, affiant prays this Honorable Court to issue a warrant for the arrest of the within-named Defendant, that he may be brought before a magistrate and held to answer for the offense(s) Child Abuse, 21 OS 843.5, Perjury, 21 OS 496.
